15TH SEPTEMBER 2019

Callum Wilson's double helped AFC Bournemouth register their first home Premier League win of the season and maintained their unbeaten record against Everton at Vitality Stadium.

The striker netted in either half, his efforts sandwiching a goal from Ryan Fraser which restored the Cherries' lead after Dominic Calvert-Lewin had levelled on the stroke of half-time.

Eddie Howe's team drew first blood when Callum Wilson netted for the second game in succession in the 23rd minute.

He nodded home from close range after Dominic Solanke had flicked on Diego Rico's corner and Joshua King had hooked the ball back into the mixer at the far post.

However, Calvert-Lewin equalised on the stroke of half-time when he rose highest to head home a teasing cross from Richarlison.

An inspired second-half showing from the Cherries was topped off by goals from Fraser and Callum Wilson in the space of five minutes. Firstly, substitute

Fraser saw his free-kick deceive England goalkeeper Jordan Pickford and then Callum Wilson's sublime finish made it 3-1.

Lewis Cook made a welcome return to the Cherries starting line-up following nine months on the sidelines. The midfielder, who ruptured the anterior cruciate ligament in his knee against Huddersfield in December, was one of four changes.

Summer signing Jack Stacey was drafted in for his Premier League debut, while Solanke and Rico also started.
