

The Diary of Samuel Pepys

Sunday 2nd September 1666

Dear Diary,

I woke up this morning and I saw a big fire out of my window. It began in a bakery and 300 houses have been burned down. I began to panic. The fire is spreading and I think that my house will burn down!

Monday 3rd September 1666

Dear Diary,

The fire is getting bigger! I am very scared because it is getting closer to my house! Today, I hid all of my money in the cellar to keep it safe.

Tuesday 4th September 1666

Dear Diary,

This morning, I put all of my best things in a cart and took them to my friend's house. I was in a hurry so I just wore my nightgown! I will have to bury my wine and cheese in the garden if this fire gets worse.

The Diary of Samuel Pepys

Sunday 2nd September 1666

Dear Diary,

My maid, Jane, called up to me early this morning to tell me that there was a big fire burning in the city. It was far away so I went back to sleep. When I got up this morning, I saw the fire out of my window but it was still far away. Jane came to tell me the fire began in a bakery on Pudding Lane and 300 houses had been burned down. She was very worried and I began to panic. The fire is spreading and I am afraid that my house will be burned down!

Monday 3rd September 1666

Dear Diary,

The fire is still getting bigger! I am very scared because it is getting closer to my house! Today, I hid all of my money in the cellar. I hope that it is hidden deep enough so that it will be safe from the fire.

Tuesday 4th September 1666

Dear Diary,

The awful fire continues! Early this morning, I put all of my most expensive things in a cart and took them to my friend's house. I was in such a hurry that I didn't even get dressed. I just wore my nightgown! On the way, I saw lots of people running away from the fire. I hope that this fire doesn't get any worse. If it does, I will dig a hole in the garden and bury my cheese and my bottles of wine to keep them safe.

Sunday 2nd September 1666

Dear Diary,

My maid, Jane, called up to me at 3 o'clock in the morning to tell me that there was a great fire burning in the City of London. It was far away so I went back to sleep thinking nothing of it. I saw the fire in the distance when I looked out of my window this morning. Jane came to tell me the fire began in a bakery on Pudding Lane and 300 houses had been burned down. I went to see the Lord Mayor to see what was being done about the fire. He was very worried and then I began to panic. The fire is spreading and I am afraid that my property will be burned to the ground!

Monday 3rd September 1666

Dear Diary,

The fire is still spreading and the flames are rising! I am terrified because it is getting closer to my house! Today, I hid all of my money in the cellar. I hope that it is hidden deep enough so that it will be safe from the fire or from anyone who tries to steal it.

Tuesday 4th September 1666

Dear Diary,

The terrible fire continues! At 4 o'clock this morning, I loaded up a cart with all of my valuables and took them to the house of my friend, Sir Rider, in Bethnal Green. I was in such a hurry that I didn't dress. I just wore my nightgown. On the way, I saw many people running away from the fire. They all looked petrified. I do hope that this fire doesn't get any worse. If it does, I shall dig a deep pit in the garden and bury my most treasured possessions. My parmesan cheese and bottles of wine will be safe there.
